All cancellations must be reported directly to the Travel Supplier within 72 hours of the event causing the need to cancel, unless the event prevents it, and then as soon as is reasonably possible. If the cancellation is not reported within the specified 72-hour period, the Company will not pay for additional charges which would not have been incurred had an Insured notified the Travel Supplier in the specified period. If the event prevents an Insured from reporting the cancellation, the 72-hour notice requirement does not apply; however, an Insured must, if requested, provide proof that said event prevented him or her from reporting the cancellation within the specified period.

Medically Necessary Repatriation: Following a covered Emergency Evacuation expense or a covered medical expense, the Insurer will pay to return You from the location to which You were evacuated or became sick or injured to Your return destination via Common Carrier within one year from Your original Trip completion date. Commercial airfare costs will be in the same class of service, as Your original airline tickets, or in business or first class as in compliance with Your medical necessities and requirements upon Your discharge, less refunds from Your unused transportation tickets.
